UBS Maintains its Controlling Interest With Acquisition of 51.07% of Convertible Debentures*

Toronto, Canada (February 24, 2004) – Unique Broadband Systems, Inc. (TSX Venture: UBS) today announced that it has exercised its rights to acquire 7% convertible debentures of Look Communications Inc. (TSX Venture: LOK) in the principal amount of $5,447,000. The acquisition was made pursuant to Look's rights offering which expired on February 23, 2004.

UBS, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, UBS Wireless Services Inc., is the owner of 14,997,467 common shares of Look, representing approximately 51.06% of the outstanding common shares of Look. The debentures acquired by UBS represent approximately 51.07% of all debentures issued under the rights offering. Based on the full conversion of debentures into Look common shares by all debenture holders, UBS will own 87,624,133 common shares of Look, representing approximately 51.08% of the outstanding common shares of Look. As a result of its participation in the rights offering, UBS has maintained its controlling interest in Look.

“UBS exercised its rights in order to maintain its controlling interest in Look,” said Gerald McGoey, Chairman and CEO of UBS. “We are pleased to see that Look has successfully raised the financing necessary to capitalize on their growth plan and we look forward to sharing in their success.”
