

LOOK AND BELL REACH TEMPORARY POSTPONEMENT OF BELL'S NOTICE OF INTENT TO DISCONNECT

Toronto, Ontario (May 9, 2007) – Unique Broadband Systems, Inc. (TSX Venture: UBS) announced today that Look Communications Inc. ("Look") (TSX Venture: LOK and LOK.A), its 51% controlled subsidiary, and Bell Canada ("Bell") have agreed to extend the May 10, 2007 deadline relating to the Notice of Intent to Disconnect that Bell issued to Look on April 10, 2007. Under the terms of the Agreement, both parties have mutually agreed to the following:

1. Bell will not disconnect services provided to Look pending the decision of the CRTC;
2. Once the decision of the CRTC is issued, Bell will not suspend services to Look for five business days from the date of the CRTC decision;
3. Look will provide Bell with its notice of motion for an injunction and supporting affidavit by May 10, 2007; and
4. The agreement is without prejudice to Bell's ability to make any argument in the injunction motion, action or other forum.

Look remains committed to ensuring the continuation of services to its 60,000 subscribers and fully intends to pursue all Regulatory and Legal remedies available. Look's Part VII Application to the CRTC (the "Application") and Bell's response to the Application can be accessed at http://www.crtc.gc.ca/PartVII/eng/2007/8622/122_200706624.htm. The Company expects that Look's reply to Bell's response will be posted shortly.

Look believes it is prudent to continue to notify all stakeholders, including Look's 60,000 subscribers, as well as the appropriate Regulatory and Legal Authorities, of the continuing behaviour and actions of Bell with respect to these events.

Look remains committed to the maximization of its assets consisting of among other things, approximately 100MHz of licensed contiguous spectrum, its technology and vision for M³ Mobile Multi Media -, its subscribers and cumulative tax losses. This unique collection of assets is both highly valuable and coveted by "Interested Parties".
